

PAVS AGM 2014
'Re-Imagining Public Services' Workshops Feedback

Children and Young People (play, youth provision, skills, training, etc)

This workshop should seek to

- establish the asset base including groups and services, buildings and facilities, specialist knowledge etc.
- what could the third sector do differently?
- What is stopping us from doing things differently?

WORKSHOP NOTES

What is the Asset Base?

What is currently available in the voluntary and Community Sector?

- Volunteers and Staff
- Youth Workers
- Councillors
- Volunteers
- Young People and children
- ME and MINE
- Staff and volunteers – trained to a high standard
- Parents
- Community members
- Information for small groups and charities
- Training
- Committee Members
- Retired professionals
- Other professionals giving time

Specialist Knowledge and Experience

- Project management skills
- Service users
- Parents
- Knowledge and experience of volunteers is often unknown and therefore under-used
- Experienced staff
- Young people's involvement
- Voluntary engagement for a long and consistent time
- Lots and lots and lots
- Information for small groups and charities
- Every possible issue under the sun

Groups and Services

- Information
- Youth assembly
- Special needs experience and access to support

- Young carers
- Communities 1st
- Youth Groups
- Parent and toddler groups
- Flying Start
- Intergenerational
- Information small groups and charities
- Voluntary Groups
- Sports Associations / Clubs
- Special Interest Groups
- Educational groups
- Community Forums
- Youth groups / centres
- Youth projects
- Education providers
- Uniform groups

Buildings and Facilities

- Centre's
- Club houses
- Playing fields
- Skate parks etc.
- Community halls
- Community associations
- Church halls
- Buildings – 70 community halls
- Scout halls
- Sailing clubs
- Organisation buildings
- Sports association buildings
- Community schools
- One stop shop
- Empty shops and industrial units in Pembroke Dock
- Information for small groups and charities